

Rick Charette Visits Abraham Lincoln School

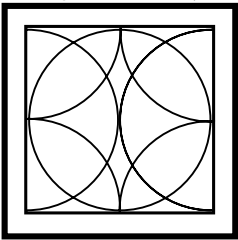

Rick Charette leading "There is an alligator in the elevator. I can't believe what I see!"

"Monkeys"

The Pal grant is funded by:

MAINE
ARTS
COMMISSION

Zakari Charette singing the alligator in the elevator song.

"I had stage fright at first, and then I got over it."

"When we sang, it felt good inside."

"I learned music is a language."

"Mr. Charette helped us organize our writing and put our song together."

The students join Rick in leading a song.

"I had the best time in the whole world."